✠CALL TO WORSHIP

Rev. L. Craig Foster

In a world of uncertainty and fear,

We come to remember the steadfast love of the Lord.

We place our trust in the One who will stand at last upon the earth.

Though confusion and fear may swirl around us,

God strengthens our hearts and comforts us in every good work and word.

Let us worship the living God, our Redeemer and our hope.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God,

you are faithful even when we are fearful, steadfast when we are shaken.

Yet we confess that our hearts are often troubled.

We chase after lesser hopes, we lose patience in waiting for your promises, and we doubt your presence in times of trial.

Forgive us, Lord. Renew our minds by your Spirit, and set our eyes again on Christ - our Redeemer who lives, our Savior who stands with us still.

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

Written to a young church facing confusion and fear about the end times, 2 Thessalonians encourages believers to stand firm in faith and not be led astray by false teachings. Paul reminds them that God's love and grace have already claimed them, and that their task is to hold fast to the truth and live with steadfast hope in Christ.

As the sunset by the sky, and as all the birds that fly, by His arms both you and I, we are held.

As the ship is by the sea, and the nest upon the tree, ever cradled, ever free, we are held.

As our life is by its span, so we rest in God's own hand, and are bold to sing again, we are held.

Children ages 3 years to 1st grade are invited to dismiss to Children's Worship; those 2nd grade and older will return to the pews.

Baptism is a celebration of the child being baptized - a thanksgiving for their life and for all that God gives them and us. It is also a welcome into the family of the Church, both worldwide and locally. Through baptism we join a vast family spanning time and space. We commit ourselves to follow Christ and worship God within that family.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

All the Beauty of the Lord
Gwynneth Walker

There’s a wideness in God’s mercy, like the wideness of the sea.
There’s a kindness in God’s justice,
which is more than liberty.
There is no place where our sorrows are more felt than up in heaven.
There is no place where our failings have such kindly judgement given.
For the love of God is broader than the vision of our mind.
And the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.
If we could but love more simply,
ever living by the Word,
then our lives would be enlightened
with the beauty of the Lord,
with the mercy and the kindness,
with the healing and forgiveness,
with the sweetness and compassion--
all the beauty of the Lord!

*“The good news is that dark and light, faith and doubt,
divine absence and presence, do not exist at opposite poles.
Instead, they exist with and within each other,
like distinct waves that roll out of the same ocean and roll back into it again.
As different as they are, they come from and return to the same source.”*
